Council Member Rocky Wood asked has the phone lines been switch from Verizon to BVU.

Mayor Yates reported the phone lines have been switched.

ITEM # X – NEW BUSINESS

A. Haysi Little League Donations-Kayla Powers

Mayor Yates asked Ms. Powers did she have any documentation on how the funds would be used.

Ms. Powers said she did not have any documentation on what the funds would be used for, she was just asked to attend the meeting for Mr. John Sykes who could not be in attendance.

Mayor Yates said the town would like to continue to help the Little League, but needs documentation on how the funds are spent.

Council Member Rocky Wood suggested having Mr. Sykes present a proposal showing how the funds will be used.

B. Relay for Life-Donation

Jennifer Kendrick, Becky Hackney, and Pam Newberry came before the council to request funds for the Relay for Life.

Becky Hackney mentioned last year the council donated $500.00 to relay for life, this year the relay for life is asking for additional funds to help with the Survivor Dinner. The Splashdam Church provides the meats for the event, but other side items along with drinks are another expense. She said she is requesting $1000.00. The funds will be split as follows: $500.00 for Relay for Life, and $500.00 to the church to help sponsor the Survivor Dinner.

After a general discussion the motion was made by Council Member Mike Harris and seconded by Council Member Diana Reedy to donate $750.00 the funds will be used to sponsor Relay for Life event and the Survivor Dinner. Let the record show the motion on the floor was passed unanimously by verbal voting.

C. Drought Ordinance

Mayor Yates said the planning district has asked the town to adopt a Drought Ordinance, so the town will stay in compliance, and it is something that needs to be in place when applying for water line extensions, and etc...

With no further discussion the motion was made by Council Member Diana Reedy and seconded by Rocky Wood to adopt the Drought Ordinance.

ITEM # XI – PUBLIC COMMENTS

Kay Owens said a meeting will be held July 6, 2011, 6:00 PM to discuss this year's festival. She said it is to her understanding the Board of Supervisors did not allocate as much funds for the event this year as in the past. The committee will need help in funding this year's festival.

Mayor Yates suggested inviting Frank Newsome to this year's festival, since Mr. Newsome has won a National Arts award. Mayor Yates stated he thinks the town need to recognize Mr. Newsome as much as possible, and even adopt a resolution for Mr. Newsome. Mayor Yates said if council is in agreement to adopt a resolution in honor of Mr. Newsome, he could have it ready at next months meeting.

Council agreed.

Katy Jo Powers announced the Haysi Partners will host a fish fry on July 8th; the cost per plate will be $6.00.

Mayor Yates asked Mrs. Powers to elaborate on the Farmer's Market.

Mrs. Powers said no items have been brought to sell at the market.

Mayor Yates stated he feels there is a lot of interest in the market, just no vendors.

Council Member Rocky Wood suggested having someone ask the vendor on Route 80 to come to the market on Fridays.

Jonathan Waterson requested to be placed on the August agenda to do a presentation on the Splashdam Project.
